

LET'S FILL THE BUS FOR TCU

Help us introduce some "First Timers" to our bus trips

So here is the deal: You buy one seat to TCU and you get one free, you buy two seats to TCU and you get two free.

The goal is to introduce more people to our bus trips, so we really want you to invite people that have not yet experienced one of our bus trips to cheer on our team in those other "than friendly" environments.

We really need to fill more seats at these away conference games so step up and bring a guest or two.

- You or your guest are responsible for purchasing game tickets that will be available on the bus.
- Space will be limited by number of seats available on the bus.
- Sorry folks "if you are related to any current student-athlete at the University of Oklahoma or have any family members being recruited by the University of Oklahoma" you are not eligible for this free offer.
